

WHAT'S HOT!

1 / LINKS TO THE PAST

Named for an Iranian province with a rich textile history, the Mazandaran collection by Nasiri includes this graphic flat-weave rug with a chain-link motif set against a wavy blue background. Handmade in Turkey, the 6' x 8' wool rug is $4,320; custom sizes and colors are available. 212-532-6777; nasiricarpets.com

1

2 / SOUTHWEST PASSAGE

A traditional Native American pattern gets a luxurious update with Umrao's Serape Navajo blanket in supersoft cashmere. Handwoven in Nepal, the blanket measures 56" x 80" and costs $6,860. 212-473-3000; abchome.com

2

3 / TOP SHELF

The Almidi étagère by Casamidy pays homage to classic Moroccan architecture. The wrought-iron piece, handmade in Mexico, is crafted with mesh panels and sturdy metal shelves. It is available in custom paint colors as well as a lacquered-metal finish, measures 58" h. x 35.5" w. x 16" d., and costs $1,400. 011-52-41-5152-0403; casamidy.com

3

4 / RIPPLE EFFECT

Nicholas Kekic, the master glass-blower behind Tsuga Studios, fuses threads of black glass into clear glass to create the delicate spiderweb pattern in the Zanfirico collection. The bud vases, which range in height from 6.5" to 13.5", are $350 each. 802-875-1825; tsugastudios.com

4

5 / ON A ROLL

Desiron's clean-lined Driscoll bar cart toasts midcentury style and the era's love for the cocktail hour. The 32" w. x 17.5" d. x 26" h. rolling cart has a distressed-brass base and fumed-oak shelves, and is $7,140. It also comes in a range of wood and metal finishes. 212-353-2600; desiron.com

5